"No Shame"

Visit "No Shame" on MotoLyrics.com

I will never be ashamed of what I am
I'm being born in a working class
They made me strong and hard to break
No one can ever step on me

The shame I've got is a pride today
A pride for my class where I love to fight
Fight for my future and for my life
I will struggle 'til the day I die

I will always stand of the pride of what I am
I will never take any shit from anyone

The workingclass life is a life I know and it made me to what I am today
I will never let anyone mess with me and never give up when the problems come

I will never take shit because I'm hard It's nothing I choose, it's the way it is I can't go back and change the past it's the future I'm fighting for

I will always stand of the pride of what I am
I will never take any shit from anyone
