You could be near her forever and ever
you could be near her forever and ever

Close your eyes wait on me severe ties (so everyone can see) silently (just one more time to me) so you're looking for some big potential well I never had it but I know what it looks like get up and leave

I'm dead to you tonight
you're always on my mind and I am lost without you (I am lost without you)

fuel up the car the engines on your heart makes noises in the dark and takes you to that place in time when it all ends
the words and the rhyme but don't be sad when you see me go (I need this love)
and leave the burdens at the door (I felt it such)
you never loved me (that it lived inside of me) you never loved me that's for sure

I'm dead to you tonight
you could be near her forever and ever what I'm waiting for a new reason

she says that I am dead with the words in my head

she says that I am dead!!!

I'm dead to you tonight
you could be near her forever and ever
you could be near her forever and ever (I'm dead to you tonight you're always on my mind)
you could be near her forever and ever (I'm dead to you tonight you're always on my mind)
