My heart is giving up
All my plans are broken
Your face is all I see
Though my world is fallen

As I watched You head into the sun
I never thought it was
My one chance to say goodbye
I never want to say goodbye

Life is sweeter, sweeter
On the other side, on the other side
I will see you, see You
On the other side, on the other side

I'll fight the stars to let me through
I'll find a way to get to You
Life is sweeter
On the other side of here

So far from where you are
But I feel You with me
You're in the place where I belong
Where my life is waiting

As I watch the rising of the sun
I pray that I could just have
One chance to say goodnight
I never wanna say goodbye

Life is sweeter, sweeter
On the other side, on the other side
I will see You, see You
On the other side, on the other side

I'll fight the stars to let me through
I'll find a way to get to You
Life is sweeter
On the other side of here

Everyday, I get a little bit closer to reaching You
But I can't wait until I'm with You forever

Everyday, I get a little bit closer to reaching You
But I can't wait until I hold You forever

Life is sweeter, sweeter
On the other side, on the other side
I will see You, see You
On the other side, on the other side

I'll fight the stars to let me through
I'll find a way to get to You
Life is sweeter
On the other side of here
On the other side of here
