I miss that place so much
I close my eyes
I walk in the little town where I left you I'm touching every tree
I can feel the ground
I'm kissing every word that I've said to you

come back, my sweet dreams
don't leave me alone
let's start from that place where we stopped
let's walk into the rain let's play with the snow let's swim in the clear river as we did before

when I loved you
when I loved him
when I loved her
I loved myself

I miss that place so much
I close my eyes
I walk in the little town where I found you
I'm touching every tree
I can feel the ground
I'm kissing every word
that I've never said

come back, my sweet dreams
don't leave me alone
let's start from that place
where we stopped
let's walk into the rain
let's play with the snow
as we did before

when I loved you

when I loved him
when I loved her
I loved myself

I loved myself
I loved myself
I loved myself
I loved myself
