You say that you've got a headache and it won't go away
But I'm part of that problem and you want me to stay

And I can't say I blame you cause I've been one in the same
Since the day that I met you and my head also aches

And I've been extra careful with the words that I say Cause I've been acting reckless in my restless days

I'm a ball of emotion, you're a half open book
And I can't read a thing so it's not looking good
But it can

Breathe so they can
You breathe so they can, all those men
You breathe so they can
You breathe so they can

And now I've got the headache and it won't go away
Like you will and you have but I hoped you would stay

And I know I can't blame you cause you've been going through a change
And I've promised to break every promise that I make

And you are extra careful in the words that you say
Cause you don't want to leave me alone the wrong way

I'm a ball of emotion, you've been playing it cool
And I won't read your signals cause they're not looking good
But they can

You breathe so they can
You breathe so they can, all those men
You breathe so they can
You breathe so they can
