My image is hard My attitude heavy
I take you out with the things that i say
I draw the crowds and whenever i'm ready
I've got what it takes to blow them all away

I am your social and your cultural leader
I create the fads and make all the scenes
You know about me from your weekly reader
I'm on the cover of your magazines-

Coz i am one of the noticeable ones
Notice me
I am one of the noticeable ones
Notice me

My private life is scandalized by the public
But that's the price i have to pay for my fame
And all the liggers in my way with their cute tricks
Are getting over just by dropping my name

Coz i am one of the noticeable ones
Notice me
I am one of the noticeable ones
Notice me
