[Featuring: Damian Marley]

(Intro)

But don't be afraid to smoke the high grade.

(Rusko)

Now where was written that I would be another killa spitting,
That I was born to be the Buddha king and your my witness,
We blow trees better believe we taking care of business,
Hit the kush, brains mushed tastes so exquisite.
I pay a visit within sub-conscience*
Thoughts and listen,
You see a vision collect your nine times optimistic,
Medicate don't hesitate form n twist it,
But if ya try to send my sock boy we go ballistic,
They call me Doctor the party rocker the scientific,
Warlock with a tigers blood I fuckin mystic,
Animalistic with beautiful minds self admitted,
Fathered a style then so many bitches counterfeit it,
20 years grindin it out blood, sweat and tears,
I was supposed to be the lost one but had no fears,
Hit the gas, taking lanes then switching gears,
Whatever the path is concentrate on what you hear.

[Damian Marley]

I live amongst the clouds,
Only the most high is above me,
No One Can Keep Me Down,
My roots are in the streets,
An the streets will always love me,
So*One Can Keep Me Down.

(Cypress Hill)

It was written,

The dogs gonna go the distance,
Off the leash,
Terrorising the streets,
Your styles bitten so stop the counterfeiting,
We the first ones that rapped for that marijuana leaf,
Your staring at your feet,
While im staring at defeat,
Ride in its sides it's success or demise,
I keep Cypress Avenue fresh on the mind,
You know I made it out the ghetto one step at a time.

[Damian Marley]

I live amongst the clouds,
Only the most high is above me,
No One Can Keep Me Down,
My roots are in the streets,
An the streets will always love me,
So One Can Keep Me Down.

(Rusko)

Cross the line in the town to be,
Cypress Hill keeps it incase they fail to see,
Big guns and bullets,
We pulled in to spray,
Then smoke a big ass joint and call it a day,
That's how the dog roll leavin haters jaw throwed,
Violators get rolled,
Kush and jack yeh that's a killa combo,
Messed up side show tripping up the room doors.

[Damian Marley]

I live amongst the clouds,
Only the most high is above me,
No One Can Keep Me Down,
My roots are in the streets,
An the streets will always love me,
So One Can Keep Me Down.
