came back to life, for your protection back the dead of resurrection we came to change the whole completion take this game a new direction last stop when the gas popped when the Kush blows free and the low-lows drop

to photo-opt
no flash
we smash
get cash
cash out the fuckin spot

it's a new day to bill
expect the hill
we grab the bill
the trip is real
don't make pull out the steal link cause all the commotion and emotions kill

heat-seekers, if the come seekers serve your asses through the big speakers anyone, anywhere, we on jack blowing up another spot with the contract

bounce bounce bounce bounce
kill em up Tear em up
put him down

jump jump jump jump
if he acts tough
shut him up

bounce bounce bounce bounce
getting high
let him ride

jump jump jump jump
if you don't give a fuck
blow him up
put him down

the fear factor
the peri-actor
adrenalin maxed in bringing the raptor we cap it and coming at ya studio gangsters applying the actra still print that real shit i'm the dog in the cup and real hard to deal with how long have we heard you down and broke down doors with the grimey sound no surrender, we push and enter take over the scene and blaze the green put a chill through ya body when you saw my teeth find yourself in the middle where the pink convenes dont slip on the misfits coz the minute you popshit the mic gets twisted anytime, anywhere we blast off the right start as parted your ass off

kill em up

jump jump jump jump

bounce bounce bounce bounce
getting high
let him ride

jump jump jump jump

we blow smoke in the air to fill the nation getting you high no hesitation so hard to charge, no complication take another hit for respiration legalise don't criticize coz one day you might understand who to symbolise any man, any woman gotta like that first trying put a cape, gotta fight back let strip shows, like flip mode we make you bounce on the track with sick flows and kick toe dont trip in the marsh pit its a danger to spray just for salts on toxic we're phenomenal, so unstoppable UNLIMITED, your just comical stay back, with slate jack (way back) payback's a bitch and we know how to play that

bounce bounce bounce bounce
kill em up

jump jump jump jump

getting high
let him ride

jump jump jump jump

put em down

shut em up

let em ride

blow em up
