"Let The Demons Rest"

Tortured innocent mind existence born of pain
I fight to free myself I curse the demon's name
Twisted vision of the truth, the world tainted grey.
Listen to demonic cries...Chanting their sepulchral lines.
Memories...Aborted...Mutated...Reinjected
Tortured innocent mind existence born of pain
I fight to free myself I curse the demon's name
Blackened memories of a time I wish had never been Surrounded and protected by the demon's leather wings.

Tortured...Tormented...Surrounded...By demons.
Let the demons...Rest!!! Tortured innocent mind existence born of pain
I fight to free myself
I curse the demon's name straddle the abysmal edge
Demons taunting me to fly on shredded wings of sanity
I throw myself into the void let the demons
[x4]...Rest!!!
Violent...Volatile...Cathartic...Release.
I cower on my knees and pray for death!!!!!!
