Far above your foul words...

I stand

With immortal will,

Craving bloodshed

My fires will still burn,

When your flame is gone

You will try to make my blood pure,

And I will feed the hammer

You will never speak for me,

And your empty words will mean your end

Tormenting,

Demonized anger

Seeks the devastation

In morbid thoughts and decay

Perversion, Blasphemy, Deathlust...

My last sight is...

Silent

For those of you,

Walking with your eyes closed

My heart's still cold,

When you are burnt to ashes

You will offer me redemption,

And I will cut you down

You will never get me,

The path to walk is far too long

Sadistic,

Abysmal depths

Gateways to annihilation,

Into my void
