How can I leave her
How can I leave her, how can I
Now that I've left your door
Can't face her anymore
I swore that I'd be true to her

How can I leave her
How can I leave her, how can I

When my poor heart was down
She raised me from the ground
How can I leave her now for you

How can I leave her
How can I leave her, how can I

How can I leave her
All alone and blue
How can I
After all that we've been through

We might have loved before
Can't hurt her anymore
So I can't leave her now for you

How can I leave her
How can I leave her, how can I

How can I leave her
All alone and blue
How can I
After all that we've been through

How can I leave her
How can I leave her, how can I
