You wait 'till later
'Till later tonight
You wait 'till later, 'till later
'Till later tonight
That boy never cast a look in your direction
Never tried to look for your affection
Dresses like the mod of your invention, tall and proud
He is the head boy of a school of thought
That plays in your intentions, night and day

And you wait 'till later
'Till later tonight
You wait 'till later, 'till later
'Till later tonight
And you wait 'till later
'Till later tonight
You wait 'till later, 'till later
'Till later tonight
'Cause tonight always comes
