Sun, sex, sin, divine intervention
Death and destruction
Ladies and gentlemen
Welcome to The Sodom And Gomorrah show

I lived a quiet life
A stranger to champagne
I never dared to venture out
To cities of the plain

I heard about their way of life
Took it with a pinch of salt
The freedom and the time to play
A life so easy, it intrigued me
When you called to say

"Are you gonna go
To the Sodom And Gomorrah Show?
It's got everything you need for your complete
Entertainment and instruction?"

?Sun, sex, sin, divine intervention
Death and destruction
The Sodom And Gomorrah show
Is a once in a lifetime production"

I think it's true to say
My life was changed that night
In the liberated atmosphere
All around me, someone found me
Whispered in my ear

"Are you gonna go
To the Sodom And Gomorrah Show?
It's got everything you need for your complete
Entertainment and instruction?"

?Sun, sex, sin, divine intervention
Death and destruction
The Sodom And Gomorrah Show
Is a once in a lifetime production"

Then we went on after hours
There was place, down below
It was there I realized
The meaning of the show

You've got to love to learn to live
Where angels fear to tread
I did it and I don't regret the day
Even now, I think of how
You turned to me to say

Sun, sex, sin, divine destruction
Sun, sex, sin, divine destruction

Are you gonna go
(Sun, sex, sin, divine destruction)
Sodom And Gomorrah
(Sun, sex, sin, divine destruction)

Are you gonna go
To the Sodom And Gomorrah show?
It's got everything you need for your complete
Entertainment and instruction

Sun, sex, sin, divine intervention
Death and destruction
The Sodom And Gomorrah Show
Is a once in a lifetime production
