Doing my best to stay healthy
Few of my words are obscene
Eating, working, walking, talking, sleeping
Should be my daily routine

But I've got a secret agenda
I miss you so much I'm a mess
I float away like a cloud in trousers
And land in a state of undress

I go up, I go down
I go crazy when you're not around
I go up, I go down
I go crazy when you're not around

I've been seen in some secret locations
Making the most of my charm
With a range of intoxications
Causing some serious harm

I go up, I go down
I go crazy when you're not around
I go up, I go down
I go crazy when you're not around

Down and up and down and up and down and up and down and up and down and up...

I don't get home til the morning
I sleep all day to prepare
For another night of desperate housewives
I need someone here when you're there

I go up, I go down
I go crazy when you're not around
I go up, I go down
I go crazy when you're not around

I go up, up, up
I go down, down, down
Baby when you coming home?

I go up, up, up
I go down, down, down
Ah, you know I hate being alone!
