Waiting, I'm restless here
Alone and thinking hurts
Didn't need nobody else before
Though I could not be alone no more
Waiting, complex for reasons I'll never know
It feels right when it all seems wrong
It's inside when I feel alone
Breathe in to rest my fears
A moments bliss so pure
We don't need nobody else I'm sure
We believe in what we have no more Waiting, patient with feelings I can't ignore but
It feels right when it all seems wrong
It's inside when I feel alone
A still light in a darkest room
Shines bright keeping me immune
I've felt like this too long
No remedy too strong
My memory still longs
Where do I belong?
Have no meaning, a hopeless feeling

I'll stop dreaming and hope this never fades away

But sometimes I'm afraid and sometimes I'm ashamed and Somedays feel so grey and sometimes I'm afraid to feel,

I'm afraid to heal

I'm afraid to feel

I'm afraid to heal

I'm afraid...

Somethings fade away, sometimes I'm afraid

Somethings fade away, I always feel afraid

Always feel afraid, I'm afraid.
