The rain, says you're leaving him tonight
And you're eyes, shine a light in your direction as you drive
I know nothing's ever been this hard, but its time you made decisions for your self

Over all, there's a truth, that resides in your heart and it's felt,
when you're true to your self,
And to your friends, and it means everything

Oh, just make up your mind tonight.
Cuz June comes so fast
You know life's just to short to hold on
When you've got nothing to lose but yourself

Slow, as you pull up to the house and walk in.
He never greets you at the door and in your mind,
You're still stuck on someone else and you know
That he's thinking of you too

All that's left to do is let go...

Oh, just make up your mind tonight.
Cuz June comes so fast
You know life's just to short to hold on
When you've got nothing to lose but yourself

Make your mind up
Follow your heart
He may love you
I still love you more
