When you're feeling low
Try a day of silence
Take things very slow
Listen to the wildness

Never speak a sound
Sit up on the hedgerow
Watch the world go round
Peace will let your mind go

When you've had a round
Sitin' home say nothing
It's really funny how
You see that something
Wonderful and warm
Lies between each second
In every side and out
Eternity will beckon

You and me we are part of a single soul
And one day we will know we're one
Sit and listen the word will come
There is nothing beneath the sun,
That we can't realize.

And one peaceful night
Will remind us that it's alright
And we'll figure we owe it all
To one life of silence

Whispers will in match
Crowed against the thunder
The wind has precious words
Erase our problems rumble

Watch a speckled fawn
Hear it crash like sea spray
Someone sees it all
We will meet him someday

When you're feeling low
Try a day of silence

Take things very slow
Maybe listen to the wildness
