Sometimes they ask me if I'm really happy now
I say sure, I never loved her anyhow
But inside, I long for you and the way it used to be
I look around and there's a heartache following me

I always say that I'm really glad you're gone
I even act like I never cared at all
But your memory lingers on and I'm never really free
I look around and there's a heartache following me

I pawned my ring and every thing that tied me to the past
I say, I never loved you, never meant for it to last
But I know it's just a game and the loser's always me
I look around and there's a heartache following me

Sometimes they ask me if I'm really happy now
I say sure, I never loved her anyhow
But inside, I long for you and the way it used to be
I look around and there's a heartache following me
I look around and there's a heartache following me
