"Long Way Down"

I don't love you
So why should I compete with other guys?
All I know is: my father told me look out
"Look out!"
I don't want you
So why should I compete with other guys?
I don't love you, no
I think I'll take a long way down from here
I think I'll take a long way down
I don't miss you, still I will take a car to be with you

I don't know you, of course you think you know me
I don't want you
So why should I compete with other guys?
I don't love you, no
I think I'll take a long way down from here
I think I'll take a long way down
I don't love you.
