all i ask for 4x's
all i ask for is a state of mind where i can keep myself in line with all the changes and all that stays the same i think i'll leave the past behind

and all the things are different in my life the words you say, i hear them on the side wishes left unanswered no songs to gravitate the feeling will not survive the feelings can not survive with all the changes in my life the feelings have survived and i just wonder why

and now i see no reason to pretend and i wont tell you that your not my only friend but, say a thousand things to try to change your mind but i cannot trust you this time no i cannot trust you this time

with all the changes in my life you should have never never never trust in you now inside you there's someone to depend on yes its true, your still my only friend but, light a candle, it slowly flickers out as the memory fades away 3x's someday

someday
all i ask for 4x's
