I saw a ship on the horizon
I hadn't seen before
I wanted to cry tears of joy
But I don't have them anymore

I've wasted them on trifles
Things that just don't mean a thing
But when I come back home to you
My love is what I'll bring

I saw a ship on the horizon
I hadn't seen before
I wanted to cry tears of joy
But I don't have them anymore

I've wasted them on trifles
Things that just don't mean a thing
And when I come back home to you
My love is what I'll bring

I saw a ship on the horizon
I hadn't seen before
I found those tears I lost
?Cause you don't love me anymore

You left me so that you could go
And have an easy life
One filled with zero trouble
And one filled with zero strife
