I'm living in the same old skin
Inside I got a whole new spin
I'm never gonna change my made up mind
When the sky's have turned to rain
I won't hide what I'll keep saying
I't 'll be alright
I've seen the light
It guides me on my way

No way I'm gonna loose control
Now that you've come to save my soul
Nobody's gonna change the way I shine
When the sky has lost it's blue
I know I will make it trough
It 'll be alright
I've seen the light
I depend on you

Let it rain on me
Let it rain on me
Let it rain down on me
I'm gonna shine
yeah
Let it rain on me
Let it rain on me
Let it rain down on me
I'm gonna shine

I won't go back again
Oh that's just fine
With you untill the end
My light will shine
