A simple wound that does not bleed another pain that no one sees you've got no faith no true believe when all you want is what you need

No way no way no way no way you've had enough of that
you're never looking back get up get up get up get up
you've had enough of that
you're never looking back

I know the way to heal yourself
I know the way to heal
raise your hands raise your hands
raise your hands

I know the way to heal yourself
I know the way to heal
raise your hands raise your hands
raise your hands

All alone with no one there a life that's barely going anywhere well there is bad news now everywhere well I got good news 'cause someone cares

No way no way no way no way
you're never looking back
get up get up get up get up
you're never looking back
I know the way to heal yourself
I know the way to heal
raise your hands raise your hands

raise your hands

I know the way to heal yourself
I know the way to heal
raise your hands raise your hands
raise your hands

Raise your hands raise your hands
raise your hands
raise your hands raise your hands
raise your hands

Hey you just sitting there feeling sorry for yourself hey are you gonna let them put you on the shelf

Who are you gonna be in the 21st century
you know to suffer is tragic 'cause the music is magic

you're never looking back
get up get up get up get u p
you've had enough of that
you're never looking back

I know the way to heal yourself
I know the way to heal
raise your hands raise your hands
raise your hands

I know the way to heal yourself
I know the way to heal
raise your hands raise your hands
raise your hands - I know the way

I know the way to heal yourself
I know the way to heal yourself
raise your hands raise your hands
raise your hands

I know the way to heal yourself
I know the way to heal yourself

raise your hands raise your hands
raise your hands - I know the way
