You're looking kind of lonely
But then again, who knows
Is it my imagination
Or just the way it goes

Now here out of nowhere
Out of the blue
An angel is walking through
What can I do

(Chorus)
Get a little higher
Get a little stronger
On the wings of your love I'll be fine
All I ever wanted
All I ever needed
Let the wings of your love be mine
I will be just fine

I'm feeling kind of sea sick
Not knowing what to say
But I wanna hold this moment
Before it turns away

Cause here out of nowhere
Out of the blue
An angel is walking through
What can I do

(Chorus)
Get a little higher
Get a little stronger
On the wings of your love I'll be fine
All I ever wanted
All I ever needed
Let the wings of your love be mine
I will be just fine
I will be just fine
Just fine

So maybe you're the one

Like the sun, like the moon
You blind me with your lie
Then you leave me too soon
Tell me, what can I do

What can I do (on the wings of your love I'll be fine)
What can I do
What can I do (let the wings of your love be mine)

To get a little higher
To get a little stronger
On the wings of your love I'll be fine
All I ever wanted
All I ever needed
Let the wings of your love be mine
I will be just fine
I will be just fine

Let the wings of your love be mine
I will be just fine
Oh oh oh, I will be just fine
