"Do A Dance"

It's a real life story that never was
Tomorrow's scandal for true love
And how one man learns to rise above
The ball and chain
It's either a bust or the big chance
A struggle for wealth and romance
So tired of trying to understand
This dirty game
I see my arms start to open
I feel my heart want to hold them
I know that I'll never be the same
I want a kiss
I want to do a dance
I want to live

I want to lay down and raise up
And feel like I can start again
No satisfaction guarantee
It's just the way things turn out to be
No sentimental nights left to haunt me
In my sleep
I believe in making the action
Just a little more sex and distraction
A I can live the everlasting
Fantasy
Only now can love make a difference
Crying out as I stop to listen
Never quite believing all that I see
