You've got eyes that make you see
Deep in the heart of our kind
You don't have the need to agree
That leads to an original find

Brave
Like a flame
You must be brave
Burn your own way

You're not supposed to be here
Despite what you've been told
Blessed the earth with a helpless tear
Shed while your fame was on hold

Brave
You must be brave
Like a flame

Brave
You must be brave
Burn your own way

You feel the sense of just being
And hardly spare a thought
The lock that you put your key in
Meant you'd never be caught
