You and I we play these games
On and on and going nowhere
This is not what pillow talk is for Higher now your blood is boiling

Getting dressed it elevates
Instead of me you're reaching for the keys

She says

She don't want to leave me but I gave her no choice
Now she will deceive me, she don't wanna to hear my voice
Can't she find one reason just to hold me closely

Somehow she is at the door
Knocking loud but sobbing softly
Could it be she's coming back for more

She don't want to leave me but I gave her no choice
Now she will deceive me, she don't want to hear my
voice
Can't she find one reason just to hold me closely again
