Men from Mars and dinosaurs, walk through the house
all day
I'm going crazy, yes it's true, I'm hoping that helps on the way
You've got work to do, you're re-decorating the place With Kingin kongs and dinging dongs, that's easy for you to say Little shoes bring me the news, the sky has come down to play Winter snows and summers will go, with no time for yesterday

A is for Angel, that's where we start A is for Angel, took hold of my heart

Green hair, Marble eyes, lips a new shade of blue Anything that comes your way, you paint with the colors of you
When my world is falling apart and I can't remember my name
Little one comes and laughs at me pulls me back into the game

A is for Angel, that's where we start
A is for Angel, you've stolen my heart

"B" may be for the "back" that's turned on you . . .
"C" for the "cruel" winds that knock you down
"D" for the "door" that can't be opened anymore
And "E" is for "everything" comes back around, Comes back around to you

Sleep child, the world is wild, you'll need your dreams to get through
When out go the lights, we'll turn on the night
The moon and stars shine on you

A is for Angel, that's where we start
A is for Angel, you've stolen my heart
