Don't let a day go by
Don't let a day go by
Without telling someone
That you love them
Without telling someone
That you love them
Without telling someone
That your love's always there

Don't let a day go by
Don't let a day go by
Without telling your friends
That you need them
Without telling your friends
That you need them
Without telling your friends
That you'll always be there

Don't let a day go by
Don't let a day go by
Without telling the world
That it's alright
Without telling the world
That it's alright
Without telling the world
You won't give up the fight

Don't let a day go by
Don't let a day go by
Without telling me that you love me
Without telling me that you care
Without telling me
You won't give up the fight
You won't give up the fight
