When will you learn to slow down
It's not today cause you're still hung over Slack jaw from the night before when you made the scene
Your movie star life is starting to show
It's losing it's glow
Will it all be for nothing
Will they crown you the queen of nothing
And the stain that's on your sleeve
Is where you used to wear your heart
Now that you're the queen
The queen of broken hearts
Did you call your mother
Did you call your father
Did you tell about the life you're leading Tell them how you can't stop the bleeding
