You give, you get.
Sometimes forget.
A lot of things,
no second strings.

It's just that everything bends,
it just depends
on weight.

You give, you get.
Sometimes forget.
Is it the truth you have in mind.
An explanation of some kind.

It's just that everything bends,
it just depends
on weight.

You give, you get.
Sometimes regret
a lot of things,
no second strings.

It's just that everything bends,
it just depends
on weight
