"Ashes Garden"

The unknown is only for some
And only the shadows know
Know your face and keep it warm
One of the candles of the soul

The sky is dark
Lighted in glory on the ashes wind
Shading the castles garden... soul of my soul

Who deserve my tears?
In the cry of the time
Of my confused mind

The eternal night
Slowly blind my eyes
With the flames of the truths
So quiet... is the deaf wind
So silent... silent is the kingdom of the night
Oh, the time... Burning so cold
Eternal eyes so... empty!

Portraits in front my eyes are like a flame
Ashen pictures... kissing the sky on the moon
Of the shame

Listen my heart now
In the ashes garden I hear your call
For the lust and spell
The treason laces... the thorns are cells
