"Amen, Cristian priest!"

Listen these shadows words
Lost in the darkest way
Where the strides are only distant
Dreams and memories of realities
That lies without name
In the Portals
On this silent madness

Behind the ancient door of dark
The beating of my heart is crying
Each second like a dumb bell
Your tears are distorted scenes of dream
Into the dungeon, oh, someone
Can you hear me away?
Awake the insane
Set me free 'cause I burn in this hell

"Witch, kneel! In the name of the church I kill!"

The sun out there is waiting for me
I will take in my hands the light of
Your heat running wild in the mind
Out darkness to a place where there no chains...
