"Pull The Breaks"

Visit "Pull The Breaks" on MotoLyrics.com

A moment to go through past days

A moment to stop to activate breaks

To reflect on something more, inmost to the core

Just to make sure we're all alive and well

Can you tell?

A moment to slow the speed down

A moment to greet the ones we surround

Tomorrow someone's gone, another's left alone

Then it is too late to tell what can't wait

Make sure they know before they go

I don't care what it takes

Now it's time we pull the breaks
