(Jackie Trent)

The angry voice is raised in vain
The feeling deep inside of pain
Sometimes, I think it's not worth while
Until once more, I see you smile

CHORUS:

What would I be without your love, I'll never know
If I were free, what could I do, where could I go?
I'm only me and I love you so

Unspoken thoughts, we both regret,
Forgive the past but can't forget
Sometimes, I just don't understand
Until once more, I hold your hand

Sometimes, it seems I can't go on
Sometimes, it feels that everything we had is gone

But though there may be many tears,
We'll stay together through the years
You only have to love me too
And I need no one else but you

CHORUS (2x)
