Hangin' on a string
Walking a tightrope
I've been relying on myself for far too long
Livin' on my own
And thinking i'd cope
Why'd i put You on the shelf
Oh i was wrong

Livin' on good intentions
Never got me very far
Only with Your direction
Can i get to where You are

Chorus
Home again
I've been gone way to long
Home again
I don't want to roam no more
I'm where i belong

I must have thought
Dreaming again out of habit
Something bout tryin to get myself ahead
Led to want it all
Then remembering i had it
I've been down that road
And won't go back again

Chorus
