Instead of standing
I choose to move and
I will say what I'm going to say
It's something in me
Defining who I am and
Making myself on the way

Loud, impulsive often get misread

Some people love me Yet some people hate

What you get is what you see
All I've got is what you get from me
Live my life within my means
All I've got is what you get from me

(I don't know why but)
They always tell me that
Some people love me
Yet some people hate

Bold, intrusive often get misread

Cause some people love me Yet some people hate

What you get is what you see All I've got is what you get from me Live my life within my means All I've got is what you get from me

That's what you get
That's what you get
That's what you get from me
From me
That's what you get from me
