My dreams, they never come true
And if they ever, ever do
It's never you
I want to come home
I want to mend
And all those old feelings are all coming back again

My dreams are hard to press on
And when I'm driving down the road
I'm not in control
I want to let go
I want to shake hands
With the person that's responsible for this master plan
I know I will, I know I can

My dreams will never come true
And if they ever, ever do
It's never you
My dreams will never come true
And if they ever, ever do
It's never you
