

Pharaoh "Speak To Me"

The sadness of sunrise
Blinded by green in my eyes
I'm lost in a a mist of tragedy and pain
A mystery washed in rain

And still I wonder what this means
Lost in dreams, oh can't you see
Can't you speak to me

In tides like the ocean
The waves of my true emotion
I'm always upstream with nothing to hold on
Only my call to you

And still I wonder what this means
Lost in dreams, oh can't you see
Can't you speak to me

As you are near me
Hear me
This loneliness is past filling me
How true
Are you
Your silent presence is killing me

And still I wonder what this means
Lost in dreams, oh can't you see
Can't you speak to me
