[Intro]

[Verse 1 - Pharrell]

You're that girl

[Who] thinks the world

Is simply beautiful

And that's all baby

But your lookin for a brawn

Wishin upon the wrong star

Cause you don't know

That's not how it goes

So, I can't explain, why things are made the same and others change

He made it that way

But the perplexities of world

Leaves more oysters and pearls

And I don't know

It's just the way it goes (But i know you can)

[Chorus]

Stay with me

Lock the door

Take the key

It is yours

Feel it babe

It is yours

It is yours

It is yours (Hey!)

[Verse 2 - Pharrell]

Don't take the time

To relax your mind

So unusual (ooh baby)

But your priorities are disheveled

But your emotions and your health just don't go

Your body says no, So-

I can't concieve

That leaves will grow on trees and blow with the breeze

And comeback next spring

But the perplexities of life

Brings more days that bore new skies

So who's to know, it's possible (that you could)

[Chorus]

[Verse 3 - Pharrell]

Up, up and away
I be the wind that blows yourself
The pixie dust of tinkerbelle
Up, up and away
I be the wind beneath your wings
The vivid colors of your dreams ohhhh

[Pusha T Verse]

Baby let's it pull up
Let them galardo doors up
Pat eve for them louis as soon as the tours up
The million dollar frame is his and her the same
I took it on the chin when i heard about the lane
I ain't here to try to rewrite your past (Naw)
That don't measure up to the nights that we laughed
When considering love you take the Good with the bad
I've been disappointed by every bitch i ever had Either she was dick crazy or cheddar mad
Shame what they did for them jeans and them leather bags
Reverse it I want perfect
That was half the reason i bought half them purses
That chapter is over, it was worth it, my My new angel surfaced,
She ain't have to rehearse it , my baby's real (Yep)
That's why i put the chill on her
So good make a nigga wanna kneel on her, not yet

[Chorus]
