(Verse 1)

I really don't know what to do
I really don't know how to say
How much I really love you now
I think about it everyday

(Hook)

And I still can't wait to hold you girl
And I still want you here in my world
'Cause I know that we are meant to be Forever, forever
You know I'll always be there for you

(Chorus)

I like waking up in the morning babe Looking at your pretty face knowing that you'll always
be mine
And I like holding you in my arms at night Underneath the moonlight knowing that you'll always
be mine
I like kissing you while you're sleeping babe Whispering I love you girl knowing that you'll always be
mine
And I like waking up to your pretty smile Touching your soft skin knowing that you'll always be
mine
Be mine be mine be mine be mine be mine be mine...

(Verse 2)

I love the smell of your perfume
I love those sexy clothes you wear
And every little things you do
Just make me wanna be with you

(Hook)

And I still can't wait to hold you girl
And I still want you here in my world
'Cause I know that we are meant to be
Forever, forever
You know I'll always be there for you

(Chorus)

I like waking up in the morning babe
Looking at your pretty face knowing that you'll always
be mine
And I like holding you in my arms at night
Underneath the moonlight knowing that you'll always
be mine
I like kissing you while you're sleeping babe Whispering I love you girl knowing that you'll always be
mine
And I like waking up to your pretty smile
Touching your soft skin knowing that you'll always be
mine

(Verse 3)

Don't have to worry about those tears falling down from your eyes
Don't have to worry about no secrets I won't tell you lies Don't have to be ashamed just tell me girl what's deep inside
No I won't never let it go I'll make it alright

(Hook)

And I still can't wait to hold you girl
And I still want you here in my world
'Cause I know that we are meant to be
Forever, forever
You know I'll always be there for you

(Chorus)

I like waking up in the morning babe
Looking at your pretty face knowing that you'll always
be mine
And I like holding you in my arms at night
Underneath the moonlight knowing that you'll always
I like kissing you while you're sleeping babe Whispering I love you girl knowing that you'll always be
mine
And I like waking up to your pretty smile
Touching your soft skin knowing that you'll always be
mine
Be mine be mine be mine be mine be mine
Knowing that you'll always be mine
Be mine be mine be mine be mine be mine
Knowing that you'll always be mine
