I put it down for my city, for my state, for my block and
for my whole damn hood;

Cause them niggaz on the streets are just, just so damn hood-

And they know,

They know x3

Erâ€™™ body out here just, just banging on me asking â€™bout my town;

Cause them killers on the block already know how I get down-

Bursting through the wall kinda something like a crack;

When I bang in the front people jam it in the back;

Flow so delicious marinated rib-stack.
