Keep me underneath
For you might wish to play it safe
Iâ€™m sure youâ€™ll be my full-protected friend
If thatâ€™s the word for this
Colliding on what I demand
Entrenched in your subtle dumb words fence

Make some room in here
All I need is oxygens
To purify my lungs from what is next
From those wounds on your fist
That no one tried to understand
Assuming it wouldnâ€™t matter in the end

But I just seem to realize your intention
To harm me where you know
My potential lies
Calling out to have some more

Make some room in here
For such a case of consciousness
You're really sure you feel like helping me
If thatâ€™s the word for this
Gotta quit to understand
And tell you it all matters in the endâ€¦

And I just seem to realize your intentionâ€¦
