Gaze into the dawns light watching those fireflies and August was so kind she's sitting on my mind maybe one day I'll see if August just waits for me

[chorus]
she can be my sunshine
and I can be myself
she can be all I want
oh August..
how'd you know me so well?

maybe my new pains
are filling my passing days we were younger then time tends to make us change I'll take any road I may and I would spend all my days just to see her

[chorus]
she can be my sunshine
and I can be myself
she can be all I want
now August
how'd you know me so well?

and I can be her moonlight and I remember bright nights August and I and fireflies just August and I and fireflies
