It's an old song playing on the radio
A melody plays the strings, A life I used to know And time it seems so fast, like a rolling stone And we are gypsy souls, we got no where to go I'll sneak in through your bedroom window and noone needs to know

And everybody wants to be somebody else sometimes, you just can't find that perfect line, oh, and everyone sometimes needs a little help, a friend to find, a love lost in time, lady lay me down, cause you know that i love you, lady lay me down, cause i know that you love me too, i know that you love me too, i know that you love me too, you love me too it's a long road coming, sticks and stones in the way, and thieves in the shadows, blood stains on their blades, and i could play it safe and turn around and walk away, but a fighter picks his fights, and broken bones will heal in time, and i could run away and hide, or lay it on the line

And everybody wants to be somebody else sometimes,
you just can't find that perfect line,
oh, and everyone sometimes needs a little help, a
friend to find, a love lost in time, lady lay me down,
cause you know that i love you, lady lay me down,
me too, i know that you love me too, you love me too

And it's over now and I know it Oh and ooh its over now but it felt so real Ooh I know it's over now but sometimes I just want something i can feel

And everybody wants to be somebody else sometimes,
you just can't find that perfect line,
oh, and everyone sometimes needs a little help, a
friend to find, a love lost in time, lady lay me down,
cause you know that i love you, lady lay me down,

heyyy you love me too, you know you know you know you love me too...
