Cheers to me another late night sinkin like a storm the crowd is left and i'm all alone and i saw a jet plane light up the night and i jumped on its wing and all of my troubles were left in my way and i opened my eyes and i'm i the same place and i thought i was once a bird careless as the days rolled past we live and learn

and now it seems i'm fallin fast cause paper airplanes always seem to crash and paper airplanes always seem to crash your children play in the courtyard you set 'em free but they're not far it's a shame that time just beats away it steals their breaths and prepares their graves and i saw a face on the train scared me to death and everything changed a young man walks over to the grave and soon he'll be dead, i'll be takin his place and i thouhgt i was

carelass as the days roll past
we live and learn
and paper airplane always seem to crash curious minds we all seem to swindle our way back and we run so fast we're still tryin to get there we know you can

careless as the days roll past
we live and learn
