Magic, magic

When you are gone, I feel so alone
I wanna know, where are you now
You make me, feel so alive. I think I'm gonna die
There are empty streets and there empty souls
Without your love I'm screaming for help
I wanna know if you are there to make my dream come true

I, I'm so in love with you
I wanna share my life with you
It's true
There's magic in the air
I, I'm so in love with you
I wanna stay there close to you
It's true
When you're around there's magic in the air

It's pretty strange, I saw your face
And suddenly there was a voice
Inside of me
Whispering words, I wanted you to say
It's getting dark, it's getting cold
Don't turn around, don't be afraid
I wanna know if you are there to make my dream come true

I, I'm so in love with you
I wanna share my life with you
It's true
There's magic in the air
I, I'm so in love with you
I wanna stay there close to you
It's true
When you're around there's magic in the air

Magic, magic

When you are gone, I feel alone
I wanna know, where are you now
You make me feel alive

I, I'm so in love with you.
I wanna share my life with you
It's true
There's magic in the air
I'm so in love with you.

I, I'm so in love with you
I wanna share my life with you
It's true
There's magic in the air
I, I'm so in love with you
I wanna stay there close to you
It's true
When you're around there's magic in the air
