One in a million
Right here baby, next to you
One in a million
All I wanna say now, baby
You're one in a million to me

I thought I was free
I didn't care to see, all those things that you did
I misunderstood
I never heard the voice, telling me not move on
A little step and I pushed you away
How could I, be so sure
You'll always come back when I call

And now I'm here, alone again
Trying to turn back time
Whatever I did, you're all that matters to me

All I wanna say
One in a million
All I wanna be
Is right here baby next to you
One in a million
All I wanna say now, baby
You're one in a million to me

My love made you high
Not aware at all, that you depended on me
We went well for a while
But then I started to treat you bad, oh baby
There were feelings I couldn't explain
In my head, I didn't know how to handle my own misery

And now I'm here, alone again
Trying to turn back time
Whatever I did, you're all that matters to me

All I wanna say
One in a million
All I wanna be
Is right here baby next to you
One in a million

All I wanna say now, baby
You're one in a million to me

All I wanna say
All I wanna be
Is right here baby next to you
No matter what you do, no matter where we go
There's only one thing

All I wanna say
One in a million
All I wanna be
Is right here baby next to you
One in a million
