I don't know if I wanna go
Through the door
Out of your life
I don't know if I wanna see
Another girl walking by your side
You are the fire in my heart
That keeps me warm
You are the meaning of my life
Baby cause tonight is the night
Were gonna be allright
Whatever you do I want let you go
Baby cause tonight is the night
When we gonna be allright
Whatever it takes you will be my love
Tonight is the night
You took away a piece of me
When you said goodbye and left the key
I didn't mean to say those words
And now it see, baby you are hurt
Cause you are a fire in my heart
That keeps me warm
And you are a meaning of my life
Baby cause tonight is the night
Were gonna be allright
Whatever you do I want let you go
Baby cause tonight is the night
When we gonna be allright
Whatever it takes you will be my love
Tonight is the night
Then we go into my bedroom
And you say I make you feel allright
Then we kiss feel like I wanna fly
And you say girl I love you
Tonight is the night
Baby cause tonight is the night
Were gonna be allright
Whatever you do I want let you go
Baby cause tonight is the night
When we gonna be allright
Whatever it takes you will be my love
Tonight is the night
What ever it takes you will be my love
