Well it's a long, long road when you're out there alone
No matter what side you're on
But there's a heart of gold behind the smile
And it brought me to where I belong

'Cause I'd set my sights on finding you
And I'm staying forever, you know it's true
Yes, I'd set all my sights on finding you
Don't be lonely tonight, we can make it alright

No matter what you say
No matter who you are
Love always finds a way
Finds a way to your heart

Well, it's a cold lonely road but you can survive
No matter which way you choose
And as long as there's life behind these eyes
I'm here with you, win or lose

If you let your light shine on through
Someone will come round to pull you through
Yes, just let your light shine on through
Don't be lonely tonight, you can make it alright

Just hold my hand
Come with me a while
I'll make you smile
Just hold my hand
There's someone who loves you
It's me, oh it's me

No matter what you say
No matter who you are
Love always finds a way
Finds a way to your heart

It's alright that you cry if you're lonely sometime
No matter who's by your side
'Cause the love that you look for is inside us all
But it's something you have to find

And I'd set my sights on finding you
And I'm staying forever, you know it's true
Yes, I'd set all my sights on finding you
Don't be lonely tonight, we can make it alright

No matter what you say
No matter who you are
Love always finds a way
Finds a way to your heart
